WELCOME

Today we remember Jesus and the story of his birth.

Jesus is the light of the world.

With Jesus there is light even in dark places.

Jesus is the light of the world.

Jesus brings us out of darkness to live in his amazing light.

Jesus is the light of the world.

The central candle of the Advent wreath is lit.

CAROL

Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.

He came down to earth from heaven, who is God and Lord of all,
and his shelter was a stable, and his cradle was a stall;
with the needy, poor and lowly, lived on earth our Saviour holy.

And our eyes at last shall see him through his own redeeming love, for that child so dear and gentle is our Lord in heav'n above;
and he leads his children on to the place where he is gone.

Mary and the Angel (from Luke's Gospel, Chapter 1, verses 26-38)

CAROL

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark street shineth the everlasting light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

O morning stars, together proclaim the holy birth,
and praises sing to God the King, and peace to all the earth;
for Christ is born of Mary; and, gathered all above,
while mortals sleep, the angels keep their watch of wond'ring love;

How silently, how silently, the wondrous gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of his heav'n.
No ear may hear his coming; but in this world of sin, where meek souls will receive him still, the dear Christ enters in.

The Emperor Issues a Decree (from Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2, verses 1-5)

CAROL

Little donkey, little donkey, on the dusty road,
got to keep on plodding onwards with your precious load.
Been a long time, little donkey, through the winter's night;
don't give up now, little donkey, Bethlehem's in sight.

Ring out those bells tonight, Bethlehem, Bethlehem,
follow that star tonight, Bethlehem, Bethlehem.
Little donkey, little donkey, had a heavy day,
little donkey, carry Mary safely on her way.

Mary and Joseph arrive in Bethlehem (from Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2, verses 6-7)

CAROL

Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes.
I love thee, Lord Jesus! Look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus; I ask thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me, I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care,
And fit us for heaven, to live with thee there.

The Shepherds and the Angels (from Luke's Gospel, Chapter 2, verses 8-20)

CAROL

While shepherds watched their flocks by night,
all seated on the ground,
the angel of the Lord came down,
and glory shone around.

“To you in David's town this day
is born of David's line
a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord,
and this shall be the sign:

The heav'nly Babe you there shall find
to human view displayed,
all meanly wrapped in swathing bands,
and in a manger laid.

All glory be to God on high,
and on the earth be peace,
goodwill henceforth from heav'n to all
begin and never cease."

The Wise Men Come from the East (from Matthew's Gospel, chapter 2, verses 1-12)

CAROL

Ding dong merrily on high,
In heav'n the bells are ringing:
Ding dong! verily the sky
Is riv'n with angel singing
Gloria Hosanna in excelsis!
Gloria Hosanna in excelsis!

E'en so here below, below,
Let steeple bells be swungen,
And "Io, io, io!"
By priest and people sungen
Gloria Hosanna in excelsis!
Gloria Hosanna in excelsis!

The story continues to conclusion.

PRAYERS

CAROL

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold him, born the king of angels.
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord.

See how the shepherds, summoned to his cradle,
Leaving their flocks, draw nigh with lowly fear;
We too will thither bend our joyful footsteps:
O come, let us adore him, ... Christ the Lord.

Lo, star-led chieftains, Magi, Christ adoring,
Offer him incense, gold and myrrh;
We to the Christ-child bring our hearts' oblations:
O come, let us adore him, ... Christ the Lord .

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above;
Glory to God in the highest: O come, let us adore him, ... Christ the Lord.

BLESSING

Happy Christmas to you all!
